Adlai Stevenson Is Nominated On First Ballot By Overwhelming Vote; Wild Scramble For Vice Presidential Nomination Is Underway

By JACK BELL

CHICAGO (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson last night won the Democratic party's overwhelming endorsement to run against President Eisenhower, a landslide victor when they faced each other four years ago.

Stevenson promptly told convention delegates the choice of a running mate would be theirs. Prantic jockeying among a number of hopefuls began at once.

Stevenson scored a first-ballot victory with 905½ votes. He needed 686½.

Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, his only real rival, had 210 before the traditional move to make the Stevenson nomination unanimous. Seven favorite sons divided the remainder.

Second Place Open

In the evening's most dramatic moment, a perspiring Stevenson strode to the podium microphone.

He told cheering delegates he had decided to "depart from the precedents of the past" so that the Democratic party's vice presidential candidate "may join me before the nation not as one man's selection but as one chosen by our great party even as I have been chosen."

This statement pitched to the convention a contest in which Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee and Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota became the principal contestants.

Kefauver, who withdrew from the presidential nomination race in favor of Stevenson after some bitter primary fights, was prodded into top position for the No. 2 place on the ticket.

Kefauver Is Confident

The Tennessee senator immediately shed the coy attitude he has maintained toward the vice presidency and announced he hopes to win on the first ballot.

In letting the delegates actually pick the vice presidential nominee, something they hadn't done in years, Stevenson spotlighted Eisenhowers health and the Republican squabble started by Harold E. Stassen's efforts to ditch Vice President Nixon. Most top GOP figures have been saying Nixon is Eisenhowers choice and will be nominated.

Stevenson told the Democratic delegates the voters "have the solemn obligation to consider with the utmost care who will be their President if the elected President is prevented by higher will from serving his full term."

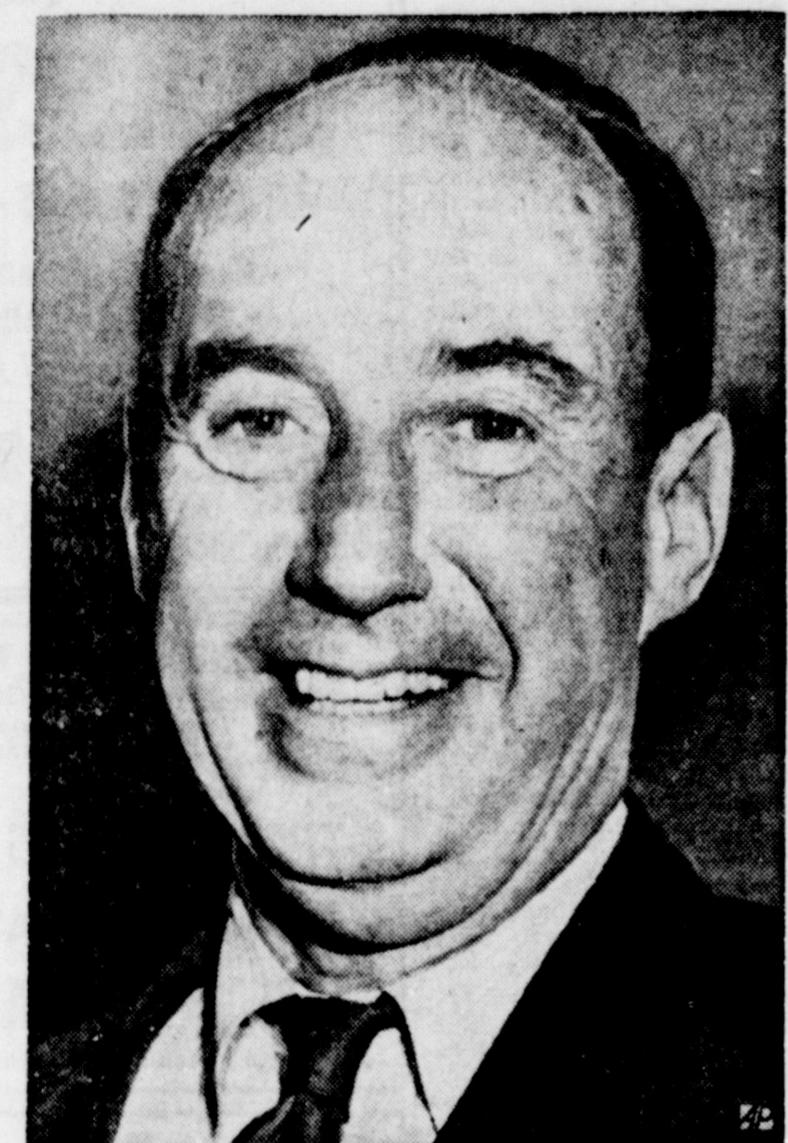

Refers To Illness

The Democratic nominee made no direct reference to Eisenhowers heart attack nor to his intestinal operation. But he added:

"It is a sober reminder that 7 out of 34 presidents have served as a result of such an indirect selection (as vice president)."

Personal Triumph

It was—for the man who came out for Stevenson months and months ago—a personal triumph. The tension last night built up.

PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEE STEVENSON

State's 67 Votes Clinched Nomination For Stevenson

CHICAGO (AP)—Pennsylvania's Democratic delegation cast about for a vice presidential choice today still tingling from its Cinderella role of clinching the national nomination for Adlai Stevenson.

Gov. Leader said the selection lies principally between Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee or Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota.

"My best estimate is that Kefauver has the strongest support in the delegation," he told a newsman. "But I may be wrong."

Leader Is Considered

The 148 delegates—each with a half vote—called a morning caucus to review the vice presidential picture. Leader's name, too, has appeared in speculation for the No. 2 spot.

"Under the present circumstances, I'm out of the picture," Leader said in discussing his vice presidential chances. "I can't conceive of any other circumstances to change it."

Leader's place in the political sun never shined more brightly than when he announced Pennsylvania's 67 votes for Stevenson and 7 votes for Gov. Averell Harriman, the defeated runner-up from New York.

Personal Triumph

It was—for the man who came out for Stevenson months and months ago—a personal triumph. The tension last night built up.

FBI Nabs 2 In Riesel Acid Case; Thrower Was Killed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The FBI today arrested two convicts in connection with the acid-blinding of labor columnist Victor Riesel.

The FBI said the actual acid-thrower is dead.

The announcement said FBI agents had developed evidence that the acid was thrown into the face of Riesel in New York City April by Abraham Telvi whose body, with a bullet hole in the back of the head, was found on a lower East Side street in New York in the early morning of July 28.

Telvi, 22, and a resident of Brooklyn, had a long police record.

The acid attack on Riesel occurred at a time when he was actively cooperating with New York U. S. Dist. Atty. Paul Williams in a labor racketeering investigation.

The two men taken into custody in New York today, alleged to have acted in concert with Telvi, were charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice.

They were identified by the FBI as Joseph Peter Carlin, 43, arrested at his home at 124 Forsyth St. and Gondolfo Mirante, 37, taken into custody at 80 Delancy St. The two were to be arraigned promptly before a U. S. commissioner in New York.

Kefauver, however, had opposition from Southern delegations. He lacked the support of his home state of Tennessee, still plugging Gov. Frank G. Clement, the convention's keynoter.

But in states the Democrats must carry if they are to win the November election, Kefauver was strong.

LAWYERS FILE ANSWERS FOR W. ELMER SCOTT

Attorneys for W. Elmer Scott, 79-year-old Gettysburg R. 1 former farmer and his nephew, Harry L. Scott, Gettysburg R. 2, have completed a "taint's so—it's so" series of motions in the equity case brought by the uncle against the nephew.

Attorneys Donald G. Oyer and Charles W. Wolf, representing the elder Mr. Scott, today filed with the prothonotary an answer to the preliminary objections filed by Attorney Richard A. Brown, of the law firm of Swope, Brown and Swope, for the younger Mr. Scott as an answer to the original complaint brought by the uncle.

The elder Mr. Scott originally had complained that in 1951 he sold his 352-acre farm to his nephew for $6,000 on condition that he be permitted to reside in the house there for the remainder of his life, be permitted to maintain a garden, two cows and some chickens, and that the nephew would look after him and care for him.

Further Complaints

W. Elmer Scott further complained that the nephew had forbidden him a garden, forbidden him to keep the animals, had changed the heating system, installing an inadequate one, that the elder Mr. Scott became ill, was cared for by friends at their home and that when he sought to return to his original home the nephew drove him out and forbade his returning to the premises.

Increase Suspense

Would it become the key decision to send Stevenson over the top?

The count droned on. Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh whispered to Leader to reverse the usual order and give the Harriman vote first and then follow up with the Stevenson figure.

The huge white scoreboard above the head of convention Chairman Sam Rayburn flickered with the rapidly changing figures.

Oregon turned in its count, giving Stevenson 674 votes.

The figure was still 12½ votes away from the "magic number" of 686½.

Leader turned to secretary of internal affairs Genevieve Blatt and exulted:

"This is it."

Weeks of strained, worried toll fell away when the governor took the microphone.

"Pennsylvania casts 7 votes for Stevenson and sufficient votes to put Stevenson over the top—67."

It was a signal for a demonstration that raged a minute during the vote.

Attorneys Oyer and Wolf in their answer held that while "no answer to the preliminary objections is required inasmuch as no facts not appearing of record are averred . . . nevertheless since the preliminary objections were endorsed with notice to the plaintiff to plead within 20 days, in order that there be no question of default for failure to file the plaintiff denies the first objection. All facts alleged are material to the issue, relevant and not beyond the scope of judicial inquiry."

He added that the "allegations are so vague and indefinitely stated that the defendant is unable to answer."

The attorney's response for the younger Mr. Scott was that the complaint should be stricken from the record because "the complaint is replete with impudent allegations in that it contains facts not material to the issue, patently irrelevant and beyond the scope of judicial inquiry."

He added that the "allegations are so vague and indefinitely stated that the defendant is unable to answer."

West Germany Outlaws Reds; Grab Property, Padlock Offices

By HANNS NEUBOURG
KARLSRUHE, Germany (AP) — West Germany today outlawed the Communist party as unconstitutional.

Within minutes after the Federal Supreme Court announced its long-awaited decision, police squads in major cities throughout the country swooped down on party headquarters.

Property was confiscated and the offices padlocked. No arrests were ordered.

Immediately after the ruling was announced by Court President Josef Wintrich, a police cordon was thrown around the court building to prevent any Red demonstration.

The ban does not affect West Berlin since the old German capital is not now a part of the federal Republic of West Germany.

Stirs Reds In East

The official East German radio in East Berlin immediately issued a call to West German workers to hold mass strikes and protest rallies against the ban.

The broadcast compared the action with similar steps taken by Hitler's government. The radio charged that the decision would make it much harder to bring about reunification of East and West Germany.

Reliable reports said the Reds several months ago completed preparations to go underground if the court's ruling went against them.

Most independent West German newspapers already have expressed the opinion the Communists would be more of a menace underground, and that a ban on the party would push its followers into greater militancy.

Affects Other Groups

The court also banned all substitute or successor party groups, spelling the legal finish for an estimated 200 Communist-front organizations operating alongside the party in West Germany.

The ruling came on a suit brought by the West German government almost five years ago. The government contended the Communist party sought the violent overthrow of the federal republic and therefore was unconstitutional. Communist party membership is estimated at 80,000.

During the 13-month trial the Communists claimed the action was masterminded by the United States to eliminate the "most determined fighters against West German rearmament."

WILL CONDUCT SCRAP DRIVE IN TANEYTON

A scrap drive in Taneytown and the surrounding area will be conducted Saturday by Explorer and Boy Scouts of American Legion troop 348. Paper, rags, magazines, scrap iron will be collected. Authorities have requested that the scrap material be placed at the roadside and be weighted down to prevent blowing away.

Twenty-seven boys and three leaders of Troop 348, Taneytown, spent last week at Broad Creek Scout camp near Whiteford, the Baltimore Area Council's scout camps.

Activities participated in by scouts and leaders during the week-long camp were: 10-mile hiking trips, softball, swimming, boating, crafts, skits, a hike to Conowingo dam, tour of Philips field at Aberdeen, an overnight canoe trip to Hopkins Cove and a patrol contest. The daily round of chores consisted of fire building, cooking, dishwashing, sanitation, tent inspections, food purchases and construction projects.

Eleven hiking trips were included in the week's activities. Patrol leader Frederick Sherman and John Myers and Explorer Jackie Bowers made the greatest mileage. Sherman's mileage was about 100; Bowers', 65; Explorers Abrecht and Garrett and Scouts Lee Sherman and John Whalen were in the 30's.

Lee Barnes and Edward Reaver of troop 348 were elected to the Order of the Arrow.

Today's Talk

THAT SOMETHING

There are people in this world whom to meet is an experience worth noting — people who make you feel at home with them, as though you had known them for years, people who are more interested in you than in themselves. People who have a genius for friendship, and for holding a friend when once discovered.

I have often wondered what it was that gave this secret power to a person. It can hardly be adequately defined but I call it "That Something." People seem to have been born with this strange influence, yet it can be acquired. More and more we can try to think of the other person as more important than ourself. And so we show interest in him and in so doing, bring out his most attractive qualities.

One salesman sells and another, in the same territory, does not. The one with "That Something" is the one who does. There are no dull days for such a one, even though he doesn't always sell. He is always welcomed. He leaves a glow of himself behind. Old clients are glad to see him. New ones become immediately interested in what he has to offer.

Why do record crowds turn out to listen to the preaching of Billy Graham, even in foreign lands before many who cannot understand his words? It's because he lives a dedicated life, is sincere, and people want to experience the same thing. People swarm to hear him because he has "That Something" that is a promise of better things in life. Less of self and more of others.

Some call this great gift personality but it is more than that. It has a spiritual quality. It is bound up with selflessness, and is something that a person evolves and creates as something unique to himself. That's why its genuineness is so welcomed, and its power so felt, even among those who can't explain it to themselves.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Be A Father To A Tree".

Just Folks
BEHIND YOUR BACK

The things men utter to your face may sweetly strike the ear,

But do not trust the gentle speech men whisper when you're near, For critics seldom realize unless the man's away.

And those who really love us best to us will little say.

The proof of what men think of you is gossip has the smack.

For it is always what is said of you behind your back.

Beware the voice of flattery; trust not the fulsome friend;

Or these, for judgment of yourself, 'tis dangerous to depend.

They'll paint you greater than you are; the truth they will not tell.

But what you are and all you are your neighbors know full well.

They know your weakness and your strength, the traits you have or lack.

Your reputation's founded on what's said behind your back.

So call it gossip if you will, but gossip molds us all.

Tis by men's nods and winks and smiles we either rise or fall.

Here is the test all mortals face while life is in the clay:

Not what we think ourselves to be, but what do others say.

Then give to malice or to shame no reason to attack;

So live your life you need not fear what's said behind your back.

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa. (AP) — Pennsylvania's 28th National Guard Division today reached the mid-way mark of its annual two weeks of summer training.

The rattle of small arms fire and the booming of artillery continued on this 17,000-acre military reservation as troops of the division's three infantry regiments and four artillery battalions practiced their skills.

The division's 103rd Engineer Battalion, Philadelphia, last night made a series of practice assaults across the camp's lake. The engineers manned small assault craft, each equipped to carry 12 infantrymen in combat.

Lew Burdette Pitches His Sixth Shutout Of Year As Braves Beat Cards; Redlegs Brooks Switch

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press
Lew Burdette, with or without an illegal "spitter," stands a chance of becoming the National League's best shutout pitcher in 14 years while figuring as one of the big guys in Milwaukee's battle for the pennant.

The 29-year-old right-hander, who had only seven shutouts in his five-year major league career before this season, added his sixth of the campaign with a neat five-hit, 8-0 victory last night over the St. Louis Cardinals—who by the way, lead the claim that the stuff Burdette throws isn't always dry. "Criminy," says Card Manager Fred Hutchinson, "you can sit on the bench and see him load 'em."

15th Victory

With his six shutouts, Burdette—who denies the "spitter" charges—is the first NL right-hander to throw that many in one season since the Phils' Robin Roberts did it to the lead the league in 1951. The 10 Mort Cooper hung up for the Cards in 1942 hasn't been touched since, and no NL pitcher has counted seven shutouts in one year since Harry Brecheen, another Card, in 1948.

Last night's job gave Burdette 15 victories and a league-leading earned run average of 2.53.

The Cincinnati Redlegs slipped to third place with a 4-2 loss to the Chicago Cubs that allowed Brooklyn to regain second with a 13-inning, 9-9 victory over the New York Giants.

Pittsburgh made it two in a row over Philadelphia, 4-1.

In the American, Boston's Willard Nixon, riding a no-hitter for seven innings, two-hit the New York Yankees for a 2-1 decision. That trimmed the Yanks' lead to 9½ games as runner-up Cleveland beat Detroit 5-4. Chicago's White Sox defeated Kansas City 6-5 in the only other game scheduled.

Three of the hits off Burdette, who didn't walk a man, were by Stan Musial—one a double that gave The Man the NL extra-basehit record with 1,072, one more than Mel Ott managed in 22 seasons. The Braves iced it with five runs in the first inning to beat Wilmer Mizell.

33rd For Duke

Duke Snider's 33rd home run—his first off a southpaw this season—broke up a 4-hour, 48-minute battle for the Dodgers. It came on a 3-2 pitch by Lefty Dick Littlefield, sixth Giant pitcher. Hank Thompson and Willie Mays each had three-run homers. Thompson's pinch-hit swing tied it in the sixth. Don Drysdale, 10th hurler used in the 33-hit game, was the winner.

Sam Jones fanned 13, high for one game in the NL this season, while knocking off the Redlegs on a seven-hitter. Solly Drake's second RBI double stood a 2-all tie in the seventh.

Two-run homers by Bill Virdon and Bill Mazeroski won for the Pirates and Vernon Law, who tossed a six-hitter. Robin Roberts lost it.

Yogi Berra's eighth-inning single broke up Nixon's no-hit bid, and the veteran right-hander then hung on for his third victory over the Yankees this season as they scored on two errors and a pinch single by Mickey McDermott in the ninth. Jackie Jensen's 16th homer put it away for the Red Sox, who got just four hits off losing Don Larsen.

Ricky Colavito smacked his first major league grand-slammer and Al Rosen poled a solo shot to beat the Tigers for Herb Score's 13th victory.

Minnie Minoso's seventh-inning triple scored the winning run as the White Sox swept the three-game set with the A's.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

PITCHING—Willard Nixon, Red Sox, held the Yankees hitless for seven innings and faced the minimum 24-men in eight while winding up with a two-single, 2-1, victory that saw the American League leaders score on two errors in the ninth.

HITTING—Solly Drake, Cubs, had three hits in five trips with his second RBI double breaking a 2-all tie in 4-2 victory over Redlegs.

UNCHANGING!

How different their transportation from ours! How different their clothing! And yet, their spirit, their motives, their purpose, their God were the same.

In a covered wagon on the open prairie, or in a modern car on a super deluxe highway, God is with his people, his unchanging love giving them strength.

His Church is unchanging too. For it taught the same truths, and proffered the same comforts to those pioneer men and women as it does today.

Yes, God is unchanging. The Church is unchanging. Only people, the hearts of people, are inconstant.

How about you? Don't you need a power and strength far greater than yourself? God is waiting, the Church is waiting, the people are waiting. Will you add your strength to theirs and help the Church meet the challenges of today?

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

VANDALS STONE PHONE OFFICES

PORSCHE, Ohio (AP) — Four installations of the Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. were stoned late last night in another outburst of violence and vandalism in the tense five-week-old strike.

All available police in Portsmouth and nearby New Boston were called out to disperse a group of 200 to 300. Portsmouth Police Chief Hugh Rudly, who gave the estimate of the number involved, said mostly teenagers were in the group that stoned the manual exchanges at New Boston and Sciotoville while some 600 employees are on strike.

Contract talks have been deadlocked over proposed no-strike clause, union shop and reclassification of certain jobs to managerial positions.

EAGLES HEAR STUDENT FROM GERMAN SCHOOL

Dietrich Sauer, West Berlin, Germany, student at Eaglehaus, the vocational youth training school at West Berlin established by the Fraternal Order of Eagles, spoke to the members of the Littlestown Aerie No. 2226, POE at their meeting on Thursday evening.

Dietrich exhibited a set of color slides on Berlin and Eaglehaus. He told the local POE members that "Eaglehaus is actually an old fortress that once guarded the approaches to the capital. At one time, it confined political prisoners, among them the famous immigrant Carl Schurz. Today the building is largely reconstructed, and has a completely rebuilt auditorium on the top floor. Trainees attend classes six days a week. The curriculum includes lectures, practical work in the shops, and such general courses as current events, history, modern art and grammar."

Dietrich, the first good will ambassador of Eaglehaus to the United States, related interesting facts concerning his personal life. He said: "I live with my mother and sister in Spandau, a section of West Berlin. During the war, the three of us were evacuated to East Prussia, near Koenigsberg. No schooling was available for me for three years, as a result I am one of the older students, 22 years. In Berlin, I attended school until 1953 when it was no longer financially possible for me to continue. I worked as a construction worker until the spring of 1954, when I enrolled at Eaglehaus, specializing as a joiner. In 1957, I will have completed my course, after which I hope to enter a seminary for training as a missionary in Africa with the German Lutheran Church." The speaker is on a three months tour of the States before returning to Germany.

During the Aerie business session Thursday evening, it was voted to purchase a 99-volume library, approved by the United Nations, to be given to an orphans' school in

NIXON ARRIVES AT 'FRISCO; TO BE NOMINATED BY QUICK VOTE

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Vice President Richard Nixon arrives in Republican National Convention headquarters tomorrow in the midst of continued predictions by top GOP officials that he will be renominated by acclamation next week at the Cow Palace.

To Adlai Stevenson's dramatic gesture in Chicago last night of throwing in the Democratic choice of a vice presidential candidate open to the convention there, GOP Chairman Leonard Hall said only: "It doesn't make any difference. They've already dumped Mr. Sparkman, the candidate for vice president in 1952. They aren't in a situation such as we are where we have such a splendid team in Washington who have the record to prove they deserve to be re-nominated again."

Adams Is There

President Sherman Adams arrived last night, tight-lipped, with assistant White House press officer Murray Snyder, shortly after Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell.

The convention opens Monday. Nomination of both presidential and vice presidential candidates is scheduled Wednesday.

High Republican figures predicted—again and again—that Nixon as well as President Eisenhower would be renominated on first ballots.

Committed To Nixon

Harold E. Stassen, promoting Massachusetts Gov. Christian Herter to replace Nixon, had the rug pulled from under him again. Herter said that if his name were placed in nomination he would ask the presiding officer to withdraw it. He is committed to nominating Nixon.

Hall predicted Stevenson would "go down to the same devastating defeat that he experienced in 1952. He has been nominated at a dull convention, marked by speeches full of distortions, half truths and untruths. He'll have to run on a platform that points up more than ever the split between the Democratic party factions on the civil rights issue."

While Republican platform drafters heard continued and repeated calls for a strong and specific civil rights plank, they also heard the first signs that Southern Republicans won't necessarily shun a floor fight next week over civil rights.

Wards Of Monkey Wrench

Lester Parsons, vice chairman of Virginia Republicans, and a member of the National Finance Committee and the convention Platform Committee, declared: "I shall do everything on the committee and in the convention to prevent the convention from saying it supports legislation to force the South to carry out provisions of the Supreme Court decision" on desegregation in schools."

He warned Illinois Sen. Everett Dirksen, chairman of the Civil Rights subcommittee, "Republicans in the South can give President Eisenhower a majority and can elect Republican congressmen provided you don't throw a monkey wrench in this platform."

An Aching Void

As the Southerners pleaded for "moderation and temperance," Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, and New York Atty. Gen. Jacob K. Javits asserted the Democratic plank of civil rights left an "aching void" into which the Republicans should rush with a firm and specific declaration on civil rights.

Platform drafters said they plan to suggest these planks to the convention:

Taxation — General tax relief, including relief to small business, contingent on a balanced budget.

Foreign policy—Endorsement of the Eisenhower foreign policy, guaranteeing the integrity of Israel but without promising arms, and a specific mention of Red China which presumably would oppose her seating in the United Nations.

Other Planks

Labor and public welfare — No endorsement of right-to-work law by the states, with some changes favored for the Taft-Hartley law, liberalization of Social Security, and federal aid for school buildings.

Agriculture — Endorsing flexible price supports for farms, and the soil bank.

Defense — Maintenance of powerful defense forces with an air force stronger than Soviet Russia's.

Hawaii and Alaska—Promise of speedy statehood to both.

Of approximately 70 million licensed drivers in the country, some 20 million were given traffic violation tickets.

YOUNG SLAYER FOUND INSANE

MILFORD, Pa. (AP) — A sanity commission has found James Van Why insane, his attorney reports, and recommends that the young slayer be committed to an institution.

The three-member court-appointed commission submitted its report on the 13-year-old Bushkill boy to the Pike County Court on Wednesday.

Afterwards, his court-appointed attorney, Sidney Krawitz of Milford, said the commission found the youngster does not know right from wrong and did not at the time he shot and killed Edward Ebele, 48, and wounded Ebele's wife, Margaret, 46, after the man had reprimanded him for target shooting near Ebele's Dingman's Ferry home April 30.

Van Why was indicted May 21, the youngest person ever indicted for murder in Pike County.

The court has not yet acted on the commission's findings. The boy was examined Aug. 8. Van Why is being held in the county prison here.

Airman Lost In Okinawa Typhoon

TOKYO (AP) — Typhoon Babs, with winds of 110 miles an hour in its center, struck a glancing blow Thursday at Japan's main southern island of Kyushu. No reports of casualties or damage were immediately available.

One U. S. Navy airman was missing in the wake of the storm's fringe on Okinawa to the south. Four others with him were rescued when their amphibious plane sank.

The pilot of the sunken Navy plane, whose name was withheld, was the object of search by Army, Air Force, Navy and Marines.

The five men were caught aboard a Navy seaplane in Okinawa's Buckner Bay when the storm

Freight Train Piles Up Near Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP) — Thirty-four cars of a long Baltimore and Ohio freight train plunged off the tracks about four miles east of here early Thursday morning and several cars were set ablaze.

Three firemen suffered minor injuries in fighting the fire.

A railroad spokesman said apparently an overheated journal box on a freight car caused the derailment and fire.

The crash ripped up tracks of the main line and broke communications. The spokesman said the road expected to have service restored on the eastbound tracks by 3 p.m. EDT and on the westbound rails by 5 p.m. Trains were being rerouted over Pennsylvania Railroad tracks.

HIGHLIGHTS OF DEMOCRATS' '56 PLATFORM

CHICAGO (AP) — Here are highlights of the Democratic party's platform as adopted by its national convention early Thursday:

CIVIL RIGHTS—Sidestepped endorsement of the controversial Supreme Court decision outlawing racial segregation in public schools, but pledged the party to advance individual rights and liberties of all Americans.

DOMESTIC POLICY—Charged that the Eisenhower administration is stunting economic progress and failing to provide prosperity for farmers, small business men, low income workers, old people, by small pensions and inadequate savings, and young persons seeking an education. It asserted also that the administration is using public revenue to "benefit the few." It promised to "release the springs of abundance" to help all.

AGRICULTURE—Condemned moves of Russia.

FOREIGN POLICY—Charged that American ties with friendly nations have been weakened by Eisenhower administration policies of what is called "bluster and bluff" without "dynamic action." It claimed also that these policies are increasing the risk of war in the Middle East.

The plank promised "bold" leadership to strengthen non-Communist countries against expansionist moves of Russia.

It called for supplying Israel with defensive weapons to offset what it called an arms imbalance in the Middle East caused by Communist munitions supplied to Egypt. And it declared support for the principle of free access to the Suez Canal under suitable international control of the waterway.

DOMESTIC POLICY—Charged that the Eisenhower administration is stunting economic progress and failing to provide prosperity for farmers, small business men, low income workers, old people, by small pensions and inadequate savings, and young persons seeking an education. It asserted also that the administration is using public revenue to "benefit the few." It promised to "release the springs of abundance" to help all.

AGRICULTURE—Condemned moves of Russia.

FOREIGN POLICY—Charged that American ties with friendly nations have been weakened by Eisenhower administration policies of what is called "bluster and Republican "failure" to halt decline in farm income, and promised Democratic program to restore "full 100 per cent parity," which it said agriculture received under Democratic administrations.

This program would replace Republican flexible price supports with 90 per cent price props on basic crops. It also would use government payments, purchases of surpluses, production controls and other measures to achieve the goal. And it would develop support measures for hogs, cattle, poultry and other perishable commodities not now under price guarantees.

Surpluses would be channeled to low-income groups at home through food stamp plan and needly abroad through relief agencies.

LABOR—Pledged repeal of what it denounced as "the vicious anti-union Taft-Hartley Labor-Management Act, and enactment of new legislation based on principles of labor laws enacted under President Franklin D. Roosevelt. It called for an increase of the minimum wage rate from the present $1 an hour to $1.25, and equal pay for equal work, regardless of sex.

FINANCIAL AND TAX POLICY—Favored an increase of $200 in the present $600-a-year personal income tax exemption. This would save low income taxpayers about $40 a year in taxes. It criticized Eisenhower administration increases in interest payments on government borrowing, contending this policy benefits the few at expense of taxpayers in general. It promised to reduce the rates.

GENERAL WELFARE—Pledged the party to expand and improve Social Security and other social welfare programs which it claimed the Democrats faltered. It charged that the GOP has opposed proposals to strengthen these programs. Besides greater aid for medical education and research, the plank promised expanded public housing programs, and financial aid to schools.

NATURAL RESOURCES—Claimed GOP administration has not safeguarded natural sources, and pledged doubling of government efforts to develop and conserve hydroelectric power projects, forests, grazing land, mineral resources, and recreational, wildlife and fishery resources.

ATOMIC ENERGY—claimed U.S. is lagging in nuclear energy field because of alleged failure of Republicans to use power of the government to speed development.

FREE ENTERPRISE—Charged that the present administration has allowed big business to dominate the economy to the detriment of small enterprises. It pledged aid to the latter in form of more credit, tax relief and more government contracts.

GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS—Promised extension of the civil service merit system, increased efficiency in the postal service—which the platform said the Republicans had crippled—and greater dissemination of information of government operations.

On other matters, it pledged renewed interest in veterans affairs; expressed favor for immediate home rule and ultimate national representation for the District of Columbia; and urged action to improve congressional procedures so that "majority rule" might prevail.

Order Crackdown On Tax Delinquents

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Revenue Department Thursday ordered a penalty crackdown on some 15,000 state sales tax delinquents.

The department directed its investigators to visit firms, delinquent in paying the 8 per cent levey, inspect their books and make "immediate assessment" of penalties unless they present a satisfactory explanation of failure to make tax returns.

The sales tax division is going into high gear with investigations and visits," a spokesman said. "We are going to take action against them."

The department said that field investigators are authorized to make "on-the-spot" assessments based on estimates of the tax owed, plus 25 per cent penalties and up to 100 per cent in flagrant cases.

Adams Farmers To Compete In Hay Days At Hershey; Secretary Benson To Speak

By FRANK S. ZETTEL

Hay days August 23-25 at Hershey will be one of several farm features on a program that will reach a climax Saturday night, August 25, when Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson speaks at 7:45 in the stadium, scene of the hay show.

While the hay show, first of five in the State, will have entries from only a 16-county Southeast district it is expected to attract statewide interest.

Entries for the Hershey hay show close at the Hershey stadium 10:30 a.m. EDT, Thursday, August 23. W. H. Hosterman, Washington, D. C. hay authority in the U. S. Department of Agriculture and a native Pennsylvanian (from Spring Mills) will be the judge.

Other agricultural events on the Hershey program, which is built around the annual Pennsylvania Dutch Days observance, include the Pennsylvania Poultry Festival, a dairy cattle show, a 4-H-FFA hog show and sale, and a farm implement exhibit.

Counties embraced in the Hershey hay show are Adams, Berks, Bucks, Chester, Cumberland, Dauphin, Delaware, Franklin, Lancaster, Lehigh, Montgomery, Northampton, Philadelphia, Schuylkill, York.

District hay shows will be held in October for the Northeast, Northwest, Southwest, and Central sections.

Blame Comb Season Is Here

As a poultryman, you can expect acute outbreaks of blue comb disease, sometimes known as pullet disease, during the rest of August and September. It seems to be most prevalent during hot weather.

Watch for a sudden drop in appetite, particularly in grain consumption. Usually the crop is full and digestion apparently stops.

Affected birds have a fever, followed by subnormal temperature. Circulation then slows down, and the head and feet are cold, the comb, head, and skin may turn blue, with the veins standing out on the inside of the shanks. Advanced cases may shiver and tremble before they die.

Mortality generally varies between three and five per cent, but may go as high as ten per cent.

You have to give treatment when the symptoms first appear, to have it do much good. Stop grain feeding at once, and withhold grain until the birds are hungry. However, you can keep feeding all the mash the birds will eat.

The antibiotic treatment has given excellent results. You can feed either terramycin or aureomycin in water or in the mash. Feeding it this way will prevent the disease in birds not affected and on full feed.

Another treatment is that of feeding molasses in the water for three days.

Still another is putting potassium chloride in water for a week.

Seedlings of Clover And Alfalfa

August seedings of alfalfa have been made successfully in Southern Pennsylvania for many years.

Variable results have been obtained from August seedings of alfalfa north of here depending on the kind of winter.

Now, here's how to get best results from your summer seedings. First of all, have your seedbed firm and freed from weeds. Prepare it with several diskings but if you have to plow, plow shallow and well ahead of seeding time.

Early preparation of the seedbed provides more chance for rainfall to settle the loose soil, and be absorbed as reserve moisture. Working the soil early also kills weeds. In wet weather, plowing eliminates more of the weeds and volunteer grain, but in normal or dry seasons, you conserve more moisture by disking rather than plowing, and you bring up fewer weeds.

Subsurface moisture is very important to your seeding. If there is a reasonable amount of moisture in alfalfa seeding in dry surface soil may be less of a hazard than waiting for a rain.

Clemson holds a 26-10 football edge over Furman. Four games ended in ties.
